

AI Negotiation Challenge

Online Simulation hosted by Geneva Graduate Institute, 23 - 24 May 2025

Registration Fees (90-Day Access)

This note presents the registration fees for participating to the AI Negotiation Challenge on 23 – 24 May 2025. Registration gives access to the Global Simulation hosted by the Graduate Institute, the AI Negotiation Network platform, tools and tutorials, as well as coaching support. This access is valid for a period of 90 days from the day of purchase. The fee is payable to Frontline Associates Training Center (FATC) at the time of registration to the AI Negotiation Network.

Please note that this initiative is run on a non-profit basis. Registration fees help cover the cost of developing the online platform and educational tools. No additional fees will be required for those participating in the on-site closing and award ceremony.

Access Type	Eligibility	Fee (USD)	Notes
Individual Access	General	$60	Includes tutorials, coaching, and simulation access
Team Access (3–5 members)	General	$180	Covers all team members; one payment per team
Individual – Least Developed Countries	Citizens of UN-designated LDCs	$30	50% discount to support equitable access. Picture of passport required.
Team – Least Developed Countries	Teams with 3–5 members, all from LDCs	$90	50% discount for LDC teams Picture of passport of team coordinator required.
Graduate Student (any university)	Enrolled in second cycle study program in recognized academic institution	$30	50% discount; supports student access. Must register with official academic email.
Graduate Institute Students and Faculty Members	Enrolled at the Graduate Institute, Geneva	Free	100% discount for students and faculty from partnering academic institution

Please note: While anyone can purchase an access to the AI Negotiation Network platform and benefit from the recorded tutorials on the platform, the enrolment to the AI Negotiation Network does not by itself ensure access to the Global Simulation. Teams must have applied and been accepted through the regular application process to guarantee access to the Global Simulation.