From AI Adoption to Workflow Integration

10 January 2027 | ONLINE

A global network of practitioners and researchers exploring how the integration of AI is transforming negotiation, mediation, and diplomacy.

We invite practitioners and researchers to share their experience, research and critical perspectives on the impact of AI on negotiation and diplomacy.

We are looking for contributions on:

- NEGOTIATION AND DIPLOMACY WORKFLOWS

How AI is changing professional processes, tasks and ways of working across multiple sectors from diplomacy, mediation, and B2B negotiations.

- PEOPLE & TEAMS

Effects on judgment, cognition, deliberation, collaboration and decision-making.

- CRAFT & LEARNING

Effects on professional experience, skills and the craft of negotiation and diplomacy.

- ORGANISATIONS

AI integration, governance, change management, acceleration and task substitution.

- DIPLOMACY & FOREIGN POLICY

Implications for bilateral and multilateral diplomacy, decision-making and foreign policy.

Additional information

The AI Negotiation Forum is a meeting place for practitioners and researchers interested in understanding how AI is changing negotiation, mediation and diplomacy across multiple sectors from multilateral diplomacy to B2B commercial negotiations.

400–500 PARTICIPANTS EXPECTED

Practitioners · Researchers · Graduate students

PROPOSE A CONTRIBUTION

Please send us a short proposal describing the question, experience or research finding you would like to bring to the Forum; why it matters for the integration of AI into negotiation or diplomacy; and the perspective you would bring to the discussion.

Selected contributors will be invited to join one of several one-hour thematic panels. Contributions will be short, generally 5–7 minutes, to leave substantial time for discussion with other panelists and participants.

Please submit a short proposal through this link

| Deadline for submission: 15 November 2026
